Schools Open Monday.

Unless new orders are issued from the state board of health, schools will begin next Monday throughout the state. There are a few cases of paralysis in the state but it is in no sense considered an epidemic.

Barton academy and graded schools were to have opened August 29, but have been held up three weeks. In some respects this is an advantage but will have a tendency to shorten vacations and make commencement a little later. Everything is in readiness for opening.

Miss Patrick, training teacher, who came here from a summer of strenuous work as instructor in Columbia college, welcomed the little vacation the postponement has given her and will take up her duties with the training class Monday ready to give this department the very high standing it reached last year.

Every indication is for a large registration in all departments.

Jury Assessed Defendant $3.48.
The jury in the mock trial of breach of promise in Seaver's hall Wednesday evening of last week, brought in a verdict of $3.48 against the defendant, Wallace H. Gilpin, $3.48 which was to go to the jury and 48 cents to the judge. The jury consisted of C. P. Hamblet, H. T. Seaver, W. S. Hibbard, F. S. Whitcher, F. A. Hunt, W. E. Hanson, Revs. Warner and Ranney, G. E. King, J. P. Urie, F. W. Comstock and Fred White, but each responded to the name of some famous man from John L. Sullivan to Charles E. Hughes, President Wilson and Gov. Gates. The participants were Miss Clemma Seaver (Mrs. Jerusha Ruge Perkins), plaintiff and Mr. Gilpin, defendant. Witnesses were Miss Aftian Scott (Miss Jerusha Ray Perkins), J. A. Pearson, Mrs. Daisy Baldwin, Dr. J. M. Blake and C. A. Barrows. Judge Thompson acted as judge. W. W. Reiriden as clerk of the court, G. J. Jennings as officer and Slayton Lang as crier, while F. W. Baldwin acted as attorney for Gilpin and A. V. Newton of Worcester, Mass., was attorney for Mrs. Perkins.

Local people who escaped without being brought into the case were few and the large audience was kept in laughter and applause for nearly two hours. Everyone went away feeling that they had had their money's worth. The Christian Endeavor society of the Congregational church, under whose auspices it was given, added a snug sum to their treasury.

READY FOR FRIDAY

Barton Guest Day Plans in Order. Free Lunch Will Be Served. Everybody Come.

Leave your purses at home. There will be no cause for having one or opening it if you did have it, because in addition to the entertaining arrangements already made, plans are being made to serve a free lunch at Alumni hall (old school building) beginning at 5:30 o'clock. This is nothing elaborate but will consist of sandwiches and good hot coffee sweetened and creamed to your taste.

Now don't stay away. We want you, we plan for you and expect you. The rooms of the Barton Improved ment club will be headquarters. Their rooms are located over the Pierce drug store and the entrance is at the double doors near the middle of the block. Here guests may check any articles of clothing for the afternoon and obtain information concerning events. Toilet rooms may be found here.

At 1 o'clock the doors of the Gem moving picture theatre will be thrown open to Barton's guests and a continuous show will be run until 4 o'clock, and persons may stay in as long or as short a time as suits their convenience.

At 1 o'clock all those who desire to do so will be taken on a cruise of Crystal lake in motor boats and a second cruise will be made at 2:30 o'clock. At 3 o'clock there will be a ball game on the fair grounds between Glover and Barton and then at 7:30 o'clock in the evening begins the great free band concert and corn roast on the fair grounds. Numerous fires will be kindled, there will be a wagon load of corn, sticks with which to roast it, and there will be some fun.

Automobiles will be provided to take guests to and from the fair grounds for the ball game in the afternoon and every comfort and convenience will be provided. And everything will be free; the picture shows, the boat rides, the ball game, the corn roast and the concert.

Remember this band concert takes the place of the Saturday evening concert for this week and is the last concert of the season.

Remember too, that this guest day is given by the people of Barton through the Barton Improvement club.

The program will be carried out as planned as nearly as weather permits. If the concert cannot be given Friday evening on account of weather it will be given Saturday evening.

Grange Fair Sept. 28.
Prospect Pomona Grange, A. P. Bean of Glover, master, plans a Grange fair on the Barton fair grounds Thursday, Sept. 28. There will be a ball game in the forenoon, a basket picnic at noon and prominent speakers. Premiums will be given on vegetables, pet stock and fancy work. This is a public fair for which a 15-cent admission will be made, but there is no charge for teams, automobiles or children under 12 years of age. This event coming under the management of the Granges, should be of especial benefit to Grangers. Watch for further announcement.

Recipients of Scholarship Honors.
Nearly a hundred boys and girls in the high school and academies of the state are eligible to receive honor scholarship from the state university. In order to stimulate secondary school scholarship the trustees of the University of Vermont have for the second year awarded scholarships valued at one hundred dollars to the boy and girl in each accredited preparatory school in the state who has attained the highest standing for the four years of preparatory work. Last year the honor scholars of the university formed a club for the promotion of scholarship both in the university and in the secondary schools of the state.

Carries Every County. Adams and Russell Win County Senatorial Contests. Other Election News.

C. S. Page won the U. S. senatorial nomination yesterday by a vote which surprised even his most ardent supporters, carrying every county in the state. H. F. Graham of Craftsbury was nominated governor on the Republican ticket without opposition, which is as good as an election.

J. E. Weeks of Middlebury is about 200 ahead of R. W. Hubbard of Hyde Park for lieutenant governor in the state according to incomplete figures obtained just before going to press. Benjamin Gates was leading Cave for auditor but returns have been so slow about coming in that definite information is not yet obtainable.

In the county the death of Caswell left the north end without a senatorial contest and Adams therefore polled the largest vote, 1606. In the south end Russell of Irasburg won by a substantial vote over N. B. Williams of Craftsbury.

There were no other county contests, Colby Stoddard of Orleans being nominated for state's attorney and the rest of the ticket as published in these columns two weeks ago.

G. W. RUSSELL OF IRASBURG
Yesterday Nominated for South End County Senator

Varnum Abbott and Miss Blanche Stevens of Lyndonville were guests of Mr. Abbott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Abbott, over Sunday. Mr. Abbott will enter the college of pharmacy in Boston soon.

Gustavus Burdick, who was mentioned last week as having accepted a position at Fabryns for the remainder of the season has since accepted a position as freight cashier of the Boston & Maine at Easthampton, Mass.

A. M. Tower, Mrs. C. S. Webster, Miss Marjorie Webster and Willard Webster were in West Derby Wednesday to attend the funeral of Charles Tower. They visited at N. L. Foster's and Will Richmond's in Newport Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hubbard are at White River Junction this week in the Odd Fellows dining hall. That this is the ninth year Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard have been there in charge of the dining hall speaks well for the satisfaction they have given.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Johnson and daughter of Newport, N. H., were guests at A. P. Underwood's Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Underwood left Sunday with Mr. Johnson and family for an automobile trip to Quebec and other points in Canada.

Let us show some public spirit by displaying flags and bunting Friday, Barton's half-holiday. Let us remember too, that we are hosts and not crowd the moving picture theatre and other places when this event is for guests. Limber up, and make this a real big live Barton guest day.

About 30 of the friends of Miss Lila Goodro gave her a miscellaneous shower Friday evening at her home on Main street. The evening was spent in playing games and singing, refreshments were served and Miss Goodro received many useful gifts in embroidered linen, china, tinware and among her gifts thirty pieces of aluminum ware from her uncle's family in Orleans.

The ladies of the Congregational church will hold a box party at the church vestry on Tuesday evening, Sept. 19, at 6 o'clock. Each lady and girl in the church is asked to bring a box containing supper for two and put her name in the box. The boxes will be free and the entertainment following at 8 o'clock will also be free. This is the first of a series of socials and it is hoped a large number of ladies and gentlemen will come and make it a success.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. W. W. Reiriden Tuesday afternoon, 15 members and five visitors, being present. The second vice president opened the meeting by reading Proverbs 31. Prayer was offered by Mrs. A. R. Cowles. After roll call the following program was enjoyed: "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," Victrola; reading, Miss Helen Desmond; paper, "Mothers and Their Responsibilities," written by Mrs. Davis and read by Mrs. Daisy Baldwin; paper, "Books, Companions and Occupations for Our Children," Mrs. H. R. Cutler; "Coronation," Victrola. After the meeting adjourned delightful refreshments were served.

Lila May Goodro, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Goodro, and Amos E. Dilley, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dilley, were united in marriage at the home of Father Marceau at 6 o'clock Monday morning, only the relatives of the contracting parties being present. The bride was attired in blue tulle and was attended by Miss Emma Dilley, sister of the groom and James Cavanaugh of Newport as best man. Following the wedding a breakfast was served at the home of the bride. The dining room was tastefully decorated with evergreen and golden glow. The young couple left on the 10:25 train amid a shower of rice and confetti for Hartford, Conn. Upon their return they will make their home for the present with Mrs. Dilley's father, Walter Goodro. Mr. Dilley has a position in the Barton Bakery. Mr. and Mrs. Dilley were the recipients of many gifts of silver, china, linen, etc. They have the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends.
